Amvis Starts Operation of Igokoro Nishi Arai

On June 1, 2024, Amvis, Inc. (Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director and CEO: Keiichi Shibahara) started operation of Igokoro Nishi Arai, as a new initiative from FY24, in the ward of Adachi, Tokyo.

Igokoro is a brand of home nursing care service for patients recuperating in their own homes. This service offers the best possible home nursing care to patients and respects their wishes to spend their final days with peace of mind, with their families and in the comfort of their own homes.

In addition to our “Ishinkan” hospice that specializes in nursing and care services for patients in terminal stages, we aim to address regional medical problems that are not confined to facilities through the “Igokoro” initiative, which provides home nursing care to people recuperating in their own homes.

Overview of Igokoro, operated by the Amvis Group

Igokoro is a brand of home nursing care service that provides support for patients, enabling them to spend their lives at home with their families.

Our Ishinkan facilities offer a platform for regional healthcare by actively accepting patients with high medical dependency, such as who are in the terminal stage of cancer and who are on respirators. By focusing not only on Ishinkan’s nursing and care services in terminal stage, but also on home nursing care services for patients recuperating in their homes through Igokoro, we will respond to diverse medical and care needs and further strengthen and revitalize regional healthcare.
