Concerning Some Media Reports Released Yesterday

Some media outlets reported yesterday that our Ishinkan business has been improperly claiming medical fees, and we are currently verifying the facts.

We will make a public announcement as soon as the facts are confirmed.

We apologize to patients in our care, their families, our investors and shareholders, business partners, and other concerned parties for the great concern these reports have caused.

We will continue to strive to provide a high level of transparency in our care, and we appreciate your ongoing support.
